The Order for Morning Prayer.

¶ Let him that Ministreth read with a loud voice these Sentences of Scripture, and after them the Exhortation following.

¶ Lie down in our shame, and our confusion covereth us: for we have sinned against the Lord our God, we and our fathers from our youth even unto this day, and have not obeyed the voice of the Lord our God.

Jer. 3. 25.

Correct, us, O Lord, but with judgment; not in thine anger: lest thou bring us to nothing.

Jer. 10. 24

DEarly beloved brethren, the Scripture moveth us in sundry places, to acknowledge and confess our manifold sins and wickedness, and that we should not dissemble nor cloke them before the face of Almighty God our heavenly Father, but confess them with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient heart, to the end, that we may obtain forgiveness of the same by his infinite goodness and mercy. And although we ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our sins before God, yet ought we most chiefly so to do, when we assemble and meet together, to render thanks for the great benefits that we have received at his hands, to set forth his most worthy praise, to hear his most holy Word, and to ask those things which are requisite and necessary, as well for the body as the soul. Wherefore I pray and beseech you as many as are here present, to accompany me with a pure heart and humble voice, unto the throne of the heavenly grace, saying after me.

A Form of Prayer.

¶ The Confession to be said of the whole Congregation after the Minister, all kneeling.

A Almighty and most merciful Father; We have erred and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; And we have done those things which we ought not to have done; and there is no health in us. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare thou them, O God, which confess their faults. Restore thou them that are penitent; According to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake; That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, To the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

¶ The Absolution to be pronounced by the Priest alone, standing; the People still kneeling.

A Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turn from his wickedness and live; and hath given power and commandment to his Ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the absolution and remission of their sins: We pardoneth and absolveth all them that truly repent, and unfeignedly believe his holy Gospel. Wherefore let us beseech him to grant us true repentance and his holy Spirit, that those things may please him which we do at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, so that at the last we may come to his eternal joy, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

¶ The People shall answer here, and at the end of all other Prayers, Amen.

¶ Then the Minister shall kneel, and say the Lords Prayer; the People also kneeling and repeating it with him.

OUR Father which art in Heaven; Hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done in Earth, as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil: For thine is the Kingdom, and the Power, and the Glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

¶ Then likewise he shall say,

O Lord, open thou our lips.

Answ. And our mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

Priest. O God make speed to save us.

Answ. O Lord, make haste to help us.

¶ Here all standing up, the Priest shall say,

Glorie be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the holy Ghost;

Answ. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Priest. Praise ye the Lord.

Answ. The Lords Name be praised.

¶ Instead of the Venite, exultemus, shall be said the XXVIII Psalm; one Verse by the Priest, another by the Clerk and People.

Unto thee will I cry, O Lord my strength: think no scorn of me, lest if thou make as though thou hearest not, I become like them that go down into the pit.

Hear the voice of my humble petitions, when I cry unto thee: when I hold up my hands towards the mercy-seat of thy holy temple.

Dpluck me not away, neither destroy me with the ungodly, and wicked doers: which speake friendly to their neighbours, but imagine mischief in their hearts.

Re-

A Form of Prayer.

Reward them according to their deeds: and according to the wickedness of their own inventions.

Recompense them after the work of their hands: pay them that they have deserved.

For they regard not in their mind the works of the Lord, nor the operation of his hands: therefore shall he break them down, and not build them up.

Praised be the Lord: for he hath heard the voice of my humble petitions.

The Lord is my strength and my shield, my heart hath trusted in him, and I am helped: therefore my heart danceth for joy, and in my song will I praise him.

The Lord is my strength: and he is the wholsome defence of his Anointed.

O save thy people, and give thy blessing unto thine inheritance: feed them, and set them up for ever.

Glorv be to the Father, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

¶ Instead of the Psalms for the Day, shall these proper Psalms be used, LXII. LXIV. CXLIV.

¶ The first Lesson, 2 Chron. Chap 20. to ver. 31.

¶ After the first Lesson, shall follow Te Deum laudamus in English.

WE praise thee, O God: we acknowledge thee to be the Lord.

All the earth doth worship thee: The Father everlasting.

To thee all angels cry aloud: the heavens, and all the powers therein.

To thee Cherubin, and Seraphin: continually do cry,

Holy, holy, holy: Lord God of Sabaoth.

Heaven and earth are full of the Majesty: of thy glory.

The glorious company of the Apostles: praise thee.

The goodly fellowship of the Prophets: praise thee.

The noble Army of Martyrs: praise thee.

The

A Form of Prayer.

The holy Church throughout all the world: both acknowledge thee;

The Father: of an infinite Majesty;

Thine honourable, true: and only Son;

Also the holy Ghost: the Comforter.

Thou art the King of Glory: O Christ.

Thou art the everlasting Son: of the Father.

When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man: thou didst not abhor the Virgins womb.

When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death: thou didst open the Kingdom of heaven to all believers.

Thou sittest at the right hand of God: in the glory of the Father.

We beleeve that thou shalt come: to be our Judge.

We therefore pray thee, help thy servants: whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.

Make them to be numbred with thy Saints: in glory everlasting.

O Lord, save thy people: and bless thine heritage.

Govern them: and lift them up for ever.

Day by day: we magnifie thee;

And we worship thy Name: ever world without end.

Touchsafe, O Lord: to keep us this day without sin.

O Lord, have mercy upon us: have mercy upon us.

O Lord, let thy mercy lighten upon us: as our trust is in thee.

O Lord, in thee have I trusted: let me never be confounded.

¶ The second Lesson, Luke XXI. verse 5. to ver. 20.

Jubilate Deo. Psal. C.

O Be joyfull in the Lord, all ye sands: serve the Lord with gladness, and come befoze his presence with a song.

A Form of Prayer.

Be ye sure, that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we our selves, we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

Go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and speak good of his Name.

For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is everlasting: and his truth endureth from generation to generation.

Glorie be to the Father, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

¶ Then shall be said the Creed by the Minister, and the People standing.

I Believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth;

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord, who was conceived by the holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried, He descended into hell; The third day he rose again from the dead, He ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the holy Ghost; The holy Catholick Church; The Communion of Saints; The forgiveness of sins; The resurrection of the body, And the life everlasting. Amen.

¶ And after that, these Prayers following, all devoutly kneeling, the Minister first pronouncing with a loud voice,

The Lord be with you.

Answer. And with thy Spirit.

Minister.

¶ Let us pray.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

¶ Then

Ans. Nor the wicked approach to hurt us.

Priest. Be unto us, O Lord, a strong tower,

Ans. From the face of our enemies.

Priest. O Lord, hear our prayer,

Ans. And let our cry come unto thee.

¶ Instead of the Collect for the day, shall be used these which follow, both in Morning and Evening Prayer.

O Lord our God, who art justly displeased with us for our great and manifold sins, whereby we have provoked thy wrath and indignation against us, and for which we have cause to fear that thou shouldst give gibe us up to the will of our Enemies. Hear us, we beseech thee, that humble our selves before thee with Fasting and Prayer. Gibe us that deep sense of our transgressions, and that godly sorrow for our sins, which may work in us repentance, not to be repented of: that so thou our gracious God, being reconciled to us for the sake of thy dear Son our Saviour, mayest still own us for thy People, and be our defence against all the enemies of thy true Religion Established amongst us; and that we living safe under thy protection, and walking worthy of thee unto all well-pleasing, may for ever glorifie thy holy Name, through Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Most glorious and gracious God, whose Judgments against obstinate offenders are most severe and terrible, but whose Mercies are infinite to all them that with hearty Repentance and true Faith turn unto thee; We the sinful People of this Land, do adore thy most righteous Judgment in all that is come upon us; and do humble our selves under thy mighty hand, acknowledging before thee, with shame and confusion of face, that we are no more worthy to be called thy Sons or thy Servants, whom neither thy Judgments have driven, nor thy Goodness led to Repentance. In mercy, O God, awaken us all to a true and deep sense of our manifold and often repeated provocations. Pardon the great offences of us thy Servants, and the crying sins of the whole Nation; remove the evils we still lie under; avert those we have just cause to fear; and howsoever thou mayest think fit to Correct us for our sins, yet never deliver us up into the hands of those men whose mercies are cruel; Pour out thy abundant Blessings upon our Gracious King, gibe thy holy Angels charge over him; bide him under the shadow of thy wings, direct and bless him in all his Consultations. And more particularly we now prostrate our selves before thee,

Amen.

Almighty

A Form of Prayer.

Almighty and everlasting God, who hatest nothing that thou hast made, and dost forgive the sins of all them that are penitent; Create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we worthily lamenting our sins, and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain of thee, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Lord, we beseech thee mercifully hear our prayers; and spare all those who confess their sins unto thee, that they whose consciences by sin are accused, by thy merciful pardon may be absolved, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

O God mighty God, and merciful Father, who hast compassion upon all men, and hatest nothing that thou hast made, who wouldest not the death of a sinner, but that he should rather turn from his sin and be saved; Mercifully forgive us our trespasses; receive and comfort us, who are grieved and wearied with the burthen of our sins. Thy property is always to have mercy; to thee only it appertaineth to forgive sins. Spare us therefore, good Lord, spare thy people whom thou hast redeemed; enter not into judgment with thy servants, who are vile earth, and miserable sinners; but so turn thine anger from us, who meekly acknowledge our vileness, and truly repent us of our faults; and so make haste to help us in this world, that we may ever live with thee in the world to come, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall the People say this that followeth after the Minister.

Turn thou us, O God Lord, and so shall we be turned. Be favourable, O Lord, be favourable to thy people, who turn to thee in weeping, fasting, and praying. For thou art a merciful God, full of compassion, long-suffering, and of great pity. Thou sparest when we deserve punishment, and in thy wrath thinkest upon mercy. Spare thy people, good Lord, spare Spare them, and let not thine heritage be brought to confusion. Hear us, O Lord, for thy mercy is great; and after the multitude of thy mercies look upon us, through the merits and mediation of thy blessed Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for all the Reformed Churches.

O God the Father of mercies, who of thy great goodness hast united us into thy holy Church, the mystical body of Christ; we as living members thereof, mourning with them that mourn, and rejoicing with them that rejoyce, do now present our Supplications and Prayers at the throne of Grace, in behalf of all the Reformed Churches; beseeching thee to look down with an eye of mercy and pity, upon the sad and mournful estate of such of them, whom thou hast delivered over to the hands of superstitious and merciless men; suffer not thy enemies still to triumph over thy Heritage. How long, Lord, shall thy anger burn? for ever? How long wilt thou forget thy People? O let the cry of the Blood of thy Saints, and the sighing of the Prisoners come before thee! Hear us, O God, for thy mercies sake, and for the honour of thy great Name. Plead thy Cause with them that blaspheme thy Truth and persecute thy People, that so all men may say, Verily there is a God that judgeth in the Earth. Purge all thy Churches from their dregs, and make them meet for a glorious Deltberance, that so all the world may see that Salvation belongs to our God; and that though he hides his face from his People for a season, yet he will not cast them off utterly. Grant that thy true Religion may so shine, as to become the Joy of the whole earth; and that all Antichristian Idolatry, Superstition and Cruelty, being cast out of thy House, all that name the Name of Christ, may depart from iniquity, and walk worthy of their holy Profession, that the Kingdom of thy dear Son may come quickly; and that all his enemies being made

¶ The General Thanksgiving.

A Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we thine unworthy servants do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and loving kindness to us, and to all men.

† This to be said when any that have been prayed for, desire to return praise. [† particularly to those who desire now to offer up their praises and thanksgivings for thy late mercies vouchsafed unto them.]

We bless thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life, but above all for thine ineffimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And we beseech thee give us that due sense of all thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful, and that we may shew forth thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up our selves to thy service, and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days, through Jesus Christ our Lord; to whom with thee and the holy Ghost be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

¶ A Prayer of S. Chrysostom.

A Almighty God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord, to make our common supplications unto thee, and dost promise, that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name, thou wilt grant their requests; Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

Let us pray.

A Almighty God, whose Kingdom is everlasting, and power infinite; have mercy upon the whole Church, and so rule the heart of thy chosen Servant WILLIAM, our King and Governour, that he (knowing whose Minister he is) may above all things seek thy honour and glory; And that we and all his subjects (duly considering whose Authority he hath) may faithfully serve, honour and humbly obey him, in thee, and for thee, according to thy blessed Word and Ordinance, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with thee and the holy Ghost, liveth and reigneth ever one God, world without end. A. Form of Prayer.

O Lord our God, who art justly displeased with us for our great and manifold sins, whereby we have provoked thy wrath and indignation against us, and for which we have cause to fear that thou shouldst give us up to the will of our Enemies; hear us, we beseech thee, that humble our selves before thee with Fasting and Prayer. Give us that deep sense of our transgressions, and that godly sorrow for our sins, which may work in us repentance not to be repented of: that so thou our gracious God, being reconciled to us for the sake of thy dear Son our Saviour, mayst still own us for thy People, and be our defence against all the enemies of thy true Religion Established amongst us; and that we living safe under thy protection, and walking worthy of thee unto all well-pleasing, may for ever glorifie thy holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The Epistle. Heb. XI. Verse 33. to the end.

Through faith they subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens. Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection. And others had trial of cruel mockings, and scourgings, yea, moreover, of bonds and imprisonment. They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheep-skins, and goat-skins, being destitute, afflicted, tormented: (of whom the world was not worthy) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth. And these all having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise: God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us, should not be made perfect.

The Gospel. S. Luke XIII. Verse 1. to Verse 10.

There were present at that season some that told Jesus of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. And Jesus answering, said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because they suffered such things? I tell you, Nay: but except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem? I tell you, Nay: but except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. He spake also this parable: A certain man had a fig-tree planted in his vineyard, and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none. Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig-tree, and find none: cut it down, why cumbereth it the ground? And he answering, said unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it: And if it bear fruit, well: and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down.

I Believe in one God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, And of all things visible and invisible:

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, begotten of his Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, Very God of very God, Begotten, not made, Being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made: Who for us men, and for our salvation, came down from heaven, and was incarnate by the holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary, And was made man, And was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate, he suffered and was buried, And the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures, And ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of the Father, ther. And he shall come again with glory to judge both the quick and the dead: Whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I beleve in the holy Ghost, the Lord and giver of life, Who proceedeth from the Father and the Son, Who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified, Who spake by the prophets. And I beleve one Catholick and Apostolick Church. I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins, And I look for the Resurrection of the dead, And the life of the World to come. Amen.

¶ Then followeth the Sermon; and after that shall be said,

Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorifie your Father which is in heaven. S. Matth. 5. 16.

As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of Faith, Gal. 6. 10.

Let us pray for the whole state of Christs Church militant here in earth.

A Almighty and everliving God, who by thy holy Apostles hast taught us to make prayers and supplications, and to give thanks for all men; We humbly beseech thee most mercifully to receive these our Prayers, which we offer unto thy divine Majesty, beseeching thee to inspire continually the universal Church with the Spirit of truth, unity, and concord: and grant that all they that do confess thy holy Name, may agree in the truth of thy holy word, and live in unity and godly love. We beseech thee also to save and defend all Christian kings, princes, and governours; and especially thy servant WILLIAM our King, that under him we may be godly and quietly governed: and grant unto his whole Council, and to all that are put in authority under him, that they may truly and indifferently minister justice, to the punishment of wickedness and vice,

vice, and to the maintenance of thy true Religion and virtue. Give grace, O heavenly Father, to all Bishops and Curates, that they may both by their life and doctrine set forth thy true and lively word, and rightly and duly administer thy holy Sacraments :
 And to all thy people give thy heavenly grace; and especially to this Congregation here present, that with meek heart and due reverence, they may hear and receiue thy holy Word, truly seruing thee in holiness and righteousness all the days of their life. And we most humbly beseech thee of thy goodness, O Lord, to comfort and succour all them who in this transitory life, are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other aduersity. And we also bless thy holy Name, for all thy servants departed this life in thy faith and fear; beseeching thee to giue us grace so to follow their good examples, that with them we may be partakers of thy heavenly Kingdom. Grant this, O Father, for Iesus Christs sake, our only Mediatour and Advocate. Amen.

O God the Father of our Lord Iesus Christ our only Saviour, the Prince of Peace, look down in much pity and compassion upon this Church and Nation, now seeking unto thee in Fasting and Prayer; and grant, we beseech thee, that our Humiliation and Repentance may haue that blessed effect, that we may all cleanse our selves from all filthiness of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. Give us grace, O Lord, seriously to lay to heart the great Dangers we are in, by our unhappy Diuisions. Take away all hatred and prejudice, and whatsoever else may hinder us from godly Union and Concord: That as there is but one Body, and one Spirit, and one hope of our Calling, one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism, one God and Father of us all; so we may henceforth be all of one Heart and of one Soul, united in one holy Bond of Truth and Peace, of Faith and Charity, and may with one mind and one mouth glorifie thee, O God, through Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Almighty God, who hast promised to hear the petitions of them that ask in thy Sons Name; We beseech thee mercifully to incline thine ears to us that have made now our Prayers and Supplications unto thee, and grant that those things which we have faithfully asked according to thy will, may effectually be obtained, to the relief of our necessity, and to the setting forth of thy glory, through Iesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then the Priest (or Bishop, if he be present) shall let them depart with this Blessing.

The peace of God which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Iesus Christ our Lord: And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.

 judgment; not in thine anger: lest thou bring us to nothing.

Dearely beloved brethren, the Scripture moveth us in sundry places, to acknowledge and confess our manifold sins and wickedness, and that we should not dissemble nor cloke them before the face of Almighty God our heavenly Father, but confess them with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient heart, to the end that we may obtain forgiveness of the same, by his infinite goodness and mercy. And although we ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our sins before God, yet ought we most chiefly so to do, when we assemble and meet together, to render thanks for the great benefits that we have received at his hands, to set forth his most worthy praise, to hear his most holy Word, and to ask those things which are requisite and necessary, as well for the body as the soul.
 Wherefore I pray and beseech you, as many as are here present, to accompany me with a pure heart and humble voice, unto the throne of the heavenly grace, saying after me.

¶ The Confession to be said of the whole Congregation after the Minister, all kneeling.

A Almighty and most merciful Father; We have erred and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; And we have done those things which we ought not to have done; and there is no health in us. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare thou them, O God, which confess their faults. Restore thou them that are penitent; according to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake; That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

¶ The Absolution to be pronounced by the Priest alone, standing; the People still kneeling.

A Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turn from his wickedness and live; and hath given power and commandment to his ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the absolution and remission of their sins: He pardoneth and absolveth all them that truly repent, and unfeignedly believe his holy Gospel. Wherefore let us beseech him to grant us true repentance and his holy Spirit, that those things may please him which we do at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, so that at the last we may come to his eternal joy, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then the Minister shall kneel, and say the Lords Prayer; the People also kneeling, and repeating it with him.

done in earth, As it is in Heaben. Giue us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our Trespases, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliuer us from evil:
For thine is the Kingdom, and the Power, and the Glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

¶ Then likewise he shall say,

¶ Lord, open thou our lips.

Answer. And our mouth shall shew forth thy praise.

Priest. ¶ God, make speed to save us.

Answer. ¶ Lord, make haste to help us.

¶ Here all standing up, the Priest shall say,

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the holy Ghost;

For behold, from henceforth: all generations shall call me blessed.

For he that is mighty hath magnified me: and help

And his mercy is on them that fear him: throughout all generations.

He hath shewed strength with his arm: he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.

He hath put down the mighty from their seat: and hath exalted the humble and meek.

He hath filled the hungry with good things: and the rich he hath sent empty away.

be called thy Sons or thy Servants, whom neither thy Judgments have driven, nor thy goodness led to Repentance. In mercy, O God, awaken us all to a true and deep sense of our manifold and often repeated provocations. Pardon the great offences of us thy servants, and the crying sins of the whole Nation; remove the evils we still lie under; avert those we have just cause to fear; and howsoever thou mayest think fit to Correct us for our sins, yet never deliver us up into the hands of those men whose mercies are cruel; pour out thy abundant Blessings upon our Gracious King, give thy holy Angels charge over him, hide him under the shadow of thy wings, direct and bless him in all his Consultations. And more particularly we now prostrate our selves before thee, to implore thy blessing upon his Fleets and Armies, compass them with thy Favour as with a Shield, let it appear that thou the Lord our God art with us to help us, and to fight our Battels; bless us with Victory and Success, and in thy own good time, with such a Peace as may tend to the glory of thy great Name, and the preservation of thy Church and true Religion among us, the Honour and Safety of his Majesty, and the Security and Prosperity of these Kingdoms. All which we humbly beg in the Name, and through the Mediation of thy Son Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for the King to be constantly used while His Majesty is abroad in the Wars.

erect and Treacherous Practices and Attempts: to stand by him, and to cover his head in the day of Danger; to bless him with good Success; and to bring him back in Safety to our Comfort: And likewise to give us Grace to live worthy of these Mercies, in all thankful Obedience to Thee, and in dutiful Subjection to His Majesty, whom Thou hast set over us, and whom we beseech Thee long to preserve and continue to us, for Thy Mercies sake, in Jesus Christ our blessed Lord and Saviour. Amen.

Q God, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed; Give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give, that both our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments, and also that by thee we being defended from the fear of our enemies, may pass our time in rest and quietness, through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

Lighten our darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord, and by thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night, for the love of thy only Son our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

O Lord, we beseech thee mercifully hear our prayers, and spare all those who confess their sins unto thee, that they whose consciences by sin are accused, by thy merciful pardon may be absolved, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Most mighty God, and merciful Father, who hast compassion upon all men, and hatest nothing that thou hast made, who wouldest not the death of a sinner, but that he should rather turn from his sin, and be saved; Mercifully forgive us our trespasses; receive and comfort us, who are grieved and wearied with the burden of our sins. Thy property is always to have mercy; to thee only it appertaineth to forgive sins. Spare us therefore good Lord; spare thy people whom thou hast redeemed; enter not into Judgment with thy servants, who are vile earth, and miserable sinners; sinners; but so turn thine anger from us, who meekly acknowledge our vileness, and truly repent us of our faults; and so make haste to help us in this world, that we may ever live with thee in the world to come, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall the People say this that followeth, after the Minister.

Turn thou us, O good Lord, and so shall we be turned. Be favourable, O Lord, be favourable to thy people, who turn to thee in weeping, fasting and praying. For thou art a merciful God, full of compassion, long suffering and of great pity. Thou sparest when we deserve punishment, and in thy wrath thinkest upon mercy. Spare thy people, good Lord, spare them, and let not thine heritage be brought to confusion. Hear us, O Lord, for thy mercy is great, and after the multitude of thy mercies look upon us, through the merits and mediation of thy blessed Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for the Kings Majesty.

O Lord our heavenly Father, high and mighty King of kings, Lord of lords, the only Ruler of Princes, who dost from thy throne behold all the dwellers upon earth; most heartily we beseech thee with thy favour to behold our most gracious Sovereign Lord, King WILLIAM, and so replenish him with the grace of thy Holy Spirit, that he may always incline to thy will, and walk in thy way; endue him plentifully with heavenly gifts; grant him in health and wealth long to live; strengthen him that he may vanquish and overcome all his enemies, and finally after this life he may attain everlasting joy and felicity, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for the Royal Family.

A Almighty God, the fountain of all goodness, we humbly beseech thee to bless Catherine the Queen Dowager, her Royal Highness the Princess Anne

A Almighty and everlasting God, who alone workest great marvels; Send down upon our Bishops and Curates, and all congregations committed to their charge, the healthful Spirit of thy grace; and that they may truly please thee, pour upon them the continual dew of thy blessing. Grant this, O Lord, for the honour of our Advocate and Mediatour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for all the Reformed Churches.

O God the Father of mercies, who of thy great goodness hast united us into thy holy Church, the mystical body of Christ; we as living members thereof, mourning with them that mourn, and rejoicing with them that rejoice, do now present our Supplications and Prayers at the Throne of Grace, in behalf of all the Reformed Churches, beseeching thee to look down with an eye of mercy and pity, upon the sad and mournful estate of such of them whom thou hast delivered over to the hands of superstitious and merciless men; suffer not thy enemies still to triumph over thy heritage. How long, Lord, shall thy anger burn? for ever? How long wilt thou forget thy People? O let the cry of the Blood of thy Saints, and the sighing of the Prisoners, come before thee! Hear us, O God, for thy mercies sake, and for the honour of thy great Name. Grant that thy true religion may so shine, as to become the Joy of the whole Earth; and that all Antichristian Idolatry, Superstition, and Cruelty, being cast out of thy house, all that name the Name of Christ, may depart from iniquity, and walk worthy of their holy profession, that the Kingdom of thy dear Son may come quickly; and that all his enemies being made his foot-stool, he who is the Lord of lords, and King of kings, may reign to all the ends of the Earth: To whom, with thee, O Father, and the holy Ghost, be all honour and glory for evermore. Amen.

O God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, our only Saviour the Prince of Peace, look down in much pity and compassion upon this Church and Nation, now seeking to thee in Fasting and Prayer; and grant, we beseech thee, that our Humiliation and Repentance may have that blessed effect, that we may all cleanse our selves from all filthiness of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God. A Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we thine unworthy servants do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and loving kindness to us, and to all men.

† This to be said when any that have been prayed for, desire to return praise.

[† particularly to those who desire now to offer up their praises and thanksgivings for thy late mercies vouchsafed unto them.] We bless thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life, but above all for thine ineffimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And we beseech thee give us that due sense of all thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful, and that we may shew forth thy praise, not only without lips, but in our lives, by giving up our selves to thy service, and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days, through Jesus Christ our Lord; to whom with thee and the holy Ghost be all honour and glory, world without end. Amen.

¶ A Prayer of St. Chrysostom.

A Almighty God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord, to make our common supplications unto thee, and dost promise, that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name, thou wilt grant their requests; fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the holy Ghost be with us all evermore. Amen.
